Sight words are common words that appear again and again in your children’s reading material. Knowing these words “by sight” is essential for reading fluency. This set provides more practice by introducing another set of sight words. With Sight Words First Grade we continue with our easy method for introducing sight words. Consistent short vowels and simple stories mean children sound out (decode) the story, and must memorize only three new sight words per book.

Sight Words: First Grade – Bob Books

Sight words are taught primarily in kindergarten and first grade, though often the practice extends up through fourth grade. [CONTINUED] BOB BOOKS have always incorporated sight words, though the sounding-out approach minimized their use. These will be the first BOB BOOKS products to focus on learning and practicing sight words.
