THE GOD OF MIRACLES - HEALING TO THE NATIONS?
Jesus did not actually say very much about healing and miracles after he had gone, he was more concerned with his own work. However, there are one or two things in the gospels that we could consider. As mentioned above, Jesus talks about faith - 'I tell you the truth, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there' and it will move.

Miraculous Healing - a Biblical Start
For Christians, Jesus ' healing miracles are a sign that God cares for people and wants to make them well again. A lot of Christians believe they should follow Jesus ' example. This might mean praying for people who are sick, believing that God will make them better. Some may choose to work or volunteer in healthcare.

Jesus - miracles: Healings - RE-quest
We can rest secure in faith that God, who is the God of miracles, hears our prayers - even our prayers for healing. He is an almighty God - not even a sparrow falls to the ground apart from His will. A man who had had an infirmity for 38 years, picked up his mat and walked away a healthy man. (John 5:1-17)

Healing, faith, and the God of miracles - Active Christianity
A Miracle speaks of an instantaneous and complete healing that goes beyond any law of physics, and beyond any human ability. Healing, however, is a gradual process which means that the individual becomes completely whole over a longer time period. Let ' s use the many instances in the bible when the blind received their sight.
